

Every client an advocate.

That's the Wright Hassall way.

WRIGHT | HASSALL

Local roots, wide horizons

Based in Leamington Spa since our foundation in 1846, Wright Hassall's roots in the local economy are deep and our reputation, solid. Having been at the heart of Coventry and Warwickshire for over 175 years, businesses and individuals in the region have come back to us, generation after generation. We believe that our own business and the success of the region are inextricably linked and we actively promote and support our locality in everything we do. Over 20% of our employees are active on the boards of local companies or support local institutions and local charities – we strive to give back at every opportunity.

We act for national and international companies but it is SMEs and individuals across our region who are the focus of our business.

Every client an advocate

We can boast that our standards of technical excellence, commercial insight and all-round experience easily match those of city practices. Where we are different is how we build relationships and forge links with our clients; we champion them, provide them with new networks wherever possible, and support their business and personal growth. Our lawyers have developed a reputation for being approachable and accessible - an unusual quality in a profession known for its complex and sometimes impenetrable language.

We consider the implications of our advice on your business or personal circumstances before reaching a conclusion; and we never lose sight of the fact that providing legal services is first and foremost, a people business. We listen, assess and then respond. We think laterally about a problem to ensure that we waste neither your time nor your money by having to revise our advice at a later date.

What we offer

We are committed to continuous improvement, attributing the success of the firm to our client-centric approach and to our development of niche areas of the law within the general practice which has enabled us to offer our clients a full range of legal services. This has been recognised in the clutch of awards we have won or for which we have been shortlisted.

The Wright Hassall way

Our client service philosophy is underpinned by our own internal ethos that we call the Wright Hassall way. This sets the standards by which we operate and ensures we continually focus on client service, keeping and have the best interests of our clients at the centre of all we do. At the end of every matter, we will ask our clients if we have met these standards and, if not, we will work with them to ensure that any shortcomings are addressed immediately. We do not stand still: we are driven by the desire for continuous improvement in everything we do.

Wright Hassall in the community

We are proud to have supported a number of community initiatives and activities over many years including organisations and projects that improve the lives of those who live locally, such as Helping Hands and Leamington Music. We have been sponsors of the Wright Hassall Regency 10k Run, organised by the Round Table for the benefit of local charities and causes, since its inauguration in 2005; and we are longstanding supporters of several local sports clubs.

Our WH Charitable Trust, created in 2012 and supported by a range of staff-led fundraising initiatives has raised over £100,000, and helped over 55 local charities in the intervening period. Our Legal Hub (free community legal clinic) is held once a month and is aimed at local residents who have a legal problem but worry about being able to afford legal advice.

More widely in the region, we are a club member of Coventry UK City of Culture 2021; Nick Abell, our Chairman, is Vice President of the Coventry and Warwickshire Local Enterprise Partnership (CWLEP); and we are active members of Coventry & Warwickshire Champions, Coventry First, the Warwickshire Rural Hub, and the Coventry and Warwickshire Chamber. We are the legal partner for Wasps RFC and Wasps Netball.

“An excellent regional firm with the breadth of expertise and commercial outlook that we need”

“They listen to their clients, provide excellent and cost-effective services, and are always available to help”

“They are highly professional and take time to explain complicated points of law”

“They are informed, agile and swift to respond. The quality of their advice has been of the highest order”
